

NELSON

THE CANADIAN HISTORY
MODULES PROJECT

ORDER FORM

Please contact Laura McReynolds to place an order:
1 800 668 0671 ext 4008 or laura.mcreynolds@nelson.com

Name: _____
School: _____
Email: _____
Course: _____
Enrolment: _____ Course Start Date: _____

Select	Title	Author
	Module 1: First Nations in Their Own Words: The Early History of Canada to 1500	Maureen Lux
	Module 2: Contact Zones from the 16th to 18th Century: How Did Aboriginal People Perceive European Newcomers?	Colin Coates
	Module 3: Fur Traders and Their Prey, 17th to 19th Centuries: Why Did Aboriginals Participate in the Fur Trade?	Colin Coates
	Module 4: Seigneurial Tenure in Early Québec, 17th to the 19th Century: What was the Meaning of Land Ownership?	Colin Coates
	Module 5: On the Edge of Empires: Acadians and Mi'kmaq in the 18th Century	Daniel Samson
	Module 6: The 14th Colony: Nova Scotia and the American Revolution	Daniel Samson
	Module 7: Gender, Sexuality, and Evangelical Protestantism in Early Upper Canada, 1795–1855	Lynne Marks
	Module 8: Worlds of Work: Pre-Industrial Work, 1860-1880	Daniel Samson
	Module 9: The Rebellions of 1837-8 in Lower and Upper Canada: Why Did People Take Up Arms Against the Government?	Colin Coates
	Module 10: Race, Class, and Gender: The Limits of Victorian Liberalism, 1830-1860	Daniel Samson
	Module 11: The Métis and Red River Society: Change, Adaptation, and Resistance, 1830s to 1870s	Maureen Lux
	Module 12: Schools, Prisons, and Asylums in Mid-19th Century British North America: What Did Institutional Reforms Have in Common?	Colin Coates

Module 13: Gender, Race, and Sexuality in Colonial British Columbia, 1849-1871	Lynne Marks
Module 14: Immigrants and Immigration: The Case of the Irish, 1830–1860	Daniel Samson
Module 15: Confederation: What Kind of Country Are We to Have?	P.E. Bryden
Module 16: Industrialization and Women's Work, 1870s-1920s	Lynne Marks
Module 17: Secularization in Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Century English Canada	Lynne Marks
Module 18: Immigration in the Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Century Canada	Lynne Marks
Module 19: As Long as the Sun Shines and the Waters Flow: Treaties and Treaty-Making in the 1870s West	Maureen Lux
Module 20: What Did it Mean to Be Canadian? Conflicting Views on Nationalism and Identity (1880s-1920s)	Marcel Martel
Module 21: The Early Canadian Women's Movement and the Struggle for the Vote, 1870s-1918	Lynne Marks
Module 22: The Great War: Leaders, Followers, and Record-Keepers	P.E. Bryden
Module 23: Protest, Parties, and Politics Between the Wars, 1919-1939	P. E. Bryden
Module 24: Canada in the 1930s: Surviving Canada's Great Depression	P. E. Bryden
Module 25: A National Crime: Residential Schools in Canada, 1880s to 1960s	Maureen Lux
Module 26: World War II and the Internment of Enemy Aliens: Circumscribing Personal Freedoms	Marcel Martel
Module 27: Peacekeeping Missions, 1956 to the 1990s: Canada's Real Contribution to World Affairs?	Marcel Martel
Module 28: Constructing a Canadian Icon: The Medicare Debate to the 1960s	Maureen Lux
Module 29: The Sixties - A Youth Revolution or A Few Angry Baby Boomers?	Marcel Martel
Module 30: Neoliberalism, Globalization, and Productivity: The New Economic Mantra in the Late Twentieth Century	Marcel Martel
Module 31: The Era of Megaconstitutionalism in Canada, 1968-1992	P.E. Bryden
Module 32: Traitors or Patriots? The Continentalism and Nationalism in the Free Trade Elections of 1891 and 1911	Chris Pennington
Module 33: Reconciling the Two Solitudes? The Debate over Official Languages, 1963-1995	Matthew Hayday
Module 34: Queering Canada: Gay and Lesbian Political and Social Activism, 1969-1982	Matthew Hayday
Module 35: The Group of Seven Artists: Inclusions and Exclusions in Canadian Landscape	Alla Myzelev

Module 36: Unfreedom in Early Canada: Race, Empire, and Slavery	Jarrett Henderson
Module 37: Eugenics in Canada	Erika Dyck
Module 38: Canadian External Affairs: 1945-1957	Colin McCullough
Module 39: Homegrown Terrorism: The October Crisis of 1970	Molly Pulver Ungar
Module 40: Some Light during Quebec's Dark Ages, 1944-1959	Molly Pulver Ungar
Module 41: Women and the Church in New France	Jane Errington
Module 42: Work, Family, and Community on the Land	Jane Errington
Module 43: Children and Childhood in the Nineteenth Century	Jane Errington
Module 44: Public Spaces: Accommodation and Conflict in the Colonies	Jane Errington
Module 45: First Nations and the New Empire	Jane Errington
Module 46: Brave New Families: Domesticity in Early Cold War Canada	Cynthia Comacchio
Module 47: Regulating Sexuality in the Early 20th Century: The Moral, the "Normal", and the Deviant	Cynthia Comacchio
Module 48: Age Matters: Growing Up in the Interwar Years	Cynthia Comacchio
Module 49: Medium and Message: Popular Culture, Mass Media, and National Identity after the Second World War	Cynthia Comacchio
Module 50: Sporting Identities: "Race," Gender, Nation and Sport in Late 19th - Early 20th Century Canada	Cynthia Comacchio

For more information and to preview the modules, please visit www.visions.nelson.com